

What's On Your Divorce Bucket List?

What are the things you simply must have to set up the next chapter of your life? I've found that it helps to visualize the whole process using imaginary buckets. Start with the four buckets below. As you are determining what bucket to put things into, be sure to ask yourself the following questions. The answers to these questions will help not only with your bucket, but also in considering where you spouse will prioritize things in theirs.

- What do you want and WHY?
- What don't you want and WHY?
- What do you need?
- What does your spouse want and WHY?
- What doesn't your spouse want and WHY?
- What does your spouse need?
- What do your children need?
- What's in your children's best interest?
